A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Hi New Wine Kids Families!
Summer Break is officially here, and with it comes a change of pace for a lot of you. There might be vacations, pool time, and fun adventures. For those of you with school-aged kiddos, there might also be a lack of your normal routine. No matter what your summer looks like, I pray that you get a chance to enjoy spending time as a family at a slower, more relaxed pace.

This month, all of the kids will be learning from the book of Genesis. The little ones will focus on creation, while the PreK/K and elementary classes will start with creation and continue through Genesis, ending the month learning about the Tower of Babel.
