Everyone enjoys feeling successful. Simply wanting certain outcomes, however, doesn't guarantee they will come to pass.

So let's discuss one characteristic needed to accomplish what we set out to do: persistence.

Paul was passionate about sharing the gospel and exemplified the capacity to stay on course in the face of difficulty. In Acts 20:24, he stated his greatest goal was to "finish my course and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify solemnly of the gospel of the grace of God." Though he encountered tremendous obstacles like shipwreck, prison, and punishment, he never quit (2 Corinthians 11:23-28).

What motivated Paul to persevere? He had a clear God-given goal and trusted that the Lord would enable him to achieve it. The apostle also felt burdened to share the life-changing truth of salvation. Paul had his eyes fixed on his purpose, which he so valued that no circumstance could deter him. And ultimately, he achieved what Almighty God had ordained.

The Father has great goals for each of His children. And striving to fulfill what He's planned for us will always be a source of joy and encouragement. Once God's direction is clear, may we wholeheartedly pursue His purposes in the Holy Spirit's strength and guidance—especially when obstacles arise.
