

MISSION IN FOCUS

Collin & Elena Brown, Proclaim Aviation Ministries
on loan to Moody Aviation

Collin is part of Moody Aviation's production shop, which works to maintain the 18 aircraft used to train the next generation of missionary aviators and mechanics. He also supervises students as they cycle through the production shop as part of their continued training and currency requirements for their Airframe & Powerplant license. Collin is a 2022 alumni of the program and has a deep passion for encouraging students as they work through this rigorous 5-year program.

Elena is currently full-time at home with Elijah, their 2-year-old son. She is trained as a nurse and hopes to use those skills in the community while also prioritizing their family.

Proclaim Aviation Ministries seeks to ease the transition between training and the mission field by providing opportunities for aviators to gain experience in their chosen skillset. They provide staff, supported by financial partners, to aviation schools, thus reducing costs for students undergoing that training.

Prayer Requests

- Endurance and energy for Collin as the semester resumes for flight students on July 7, heralding more regular inspections and increased workloads
- Wisdom for Elena as she investigates nursing volunteer opportunities
- Continued financial support as we continue to work towards our support goal
- Growth in relationships with family and friends in the Spokane area
- Opportunities to serve in our community and local church

FINDING AGAPE STEENBURG FAMILY

Agape means love. Love God, love others, love the Word. As our family crossed the country from Iowa to Washington we longed for true community in our new location. Having been told about a homeschool co-op at LC3, we were excited to join. Agape Co-op became a place where God renewed our love for Him, for others, and for His Word. Not only did the children make lasting friendships but as a mother I was able to connect deeply with women on a spiritual level and a friendship level.

When we found out that I had cancer, Agape became such a strategic area of support for us. Agape was a community, a family, and a home during one of our hardest times. When we were at our lowest of lows, someone was always there with a meal for us, or to watch and play with the kids. Most importantly, someone was always there to pray for us and with us. They stood by our side through the entire journey, and never stopped loving us with that unconditional love that is agape. Not only are we extremely thankful that God healed me from cancer, but we are extremely thankful for the ways God worked to draw us closer to Him.

As we move with the military, and our season with Agape is over, we are incredibly thankful to God for a co-op that provided excellent classes for the children, incredible fellowship for mothers, and beautiful friendships for everyone. So, thank you, Agape, for your amazing love, commitment, and friendship to our family. We will never forget you.

Poem by Anabelle Steenburg, age 15

*When I am going to Agape, I have a smile on my face.
Agape makes me happy in so many ways.
From the love we share to our friend's burdens we help bear.
From the friends all around us to the love that surrounds us,
you can feel that God is there.
Without Agape I don't know what I would have done.
It became more than just a place of fun.
Agape is a place where it is hard to feel alone,
a place that feels like home.
When I am going to Agape, I have a smile on my face.
Agape makes me happy in so many ways.*

WELCOME GUESTS!
