MISSION IN FOCUS MALIBU WORK CREW UPDATE

On Monday, August 18, fifty members of our LC3 family set out on a full-day journey to Young Life's breathtaking Malibu camp in Canada. For an entire week, our team poured into the lives of 30 military families—soldiers, airmen, and their loved ones. Whether serving meals in the kitchen and dining hall, lending a hand around camp, or caring for children, our team embraced every opportunity to serve.

Among the group were 27 of our own students, who represented LC3 with joy, energy, and a servant's heart. Together, they lived out the gospel in both word and deed, showing Christ's love in practical and powerful ways.

Next month, we'll continue this ministry by welcoming these same families to LC3 for a reunion. Thank you, Lake City, for your prayers and support—your generosity made this trip possible and is helping us impact the JBLM community for Christ.

Prayer Requests:

- That the Gospel seeds planted in families would grow.
- That connections LC3 made with families would deepen.
- That God's work in the 50 LC3 volunteers would continue to blossom.

MEET PASTOR JEFFEREY! PASTOR OF CARE & COUNSELING

I am so excited to join LC3 and the work God is doing here! The Lord has given me a deep passion for His Word, spiritual formation, and counseling. I currently serve in the Oregon Army National Guard, where I spent four years as a junior enlisted soldier and three years as a chaplain candidate. This winter, I will commission as an Army National Guard chaplain.

I earned my Master of Divinity from Western Seminary and have previously served as both a worship and youth pastor.

I married Brooke in 2014, and we have had a blast raising our two kids, Lukas and Elizabeth. We have a cat named Microwave and a goldendoodle named Beans. We prefer doing most things together as a family, such as going to parks, playing pretend, or meeting up with other families. I love playing board games, listening to orchestral and synthwave music, drinking nice coffee, learning ancient languages, reading theology or fantasy books, and sharing stories of God's kindness to people.

WELCOME!

This past week, Pastor Jefferey began serving full-time at LC3. In addition to overseeing congregational care, Jefferey will be provide pastoral counseling and oversee community groups and purity ministries. With his military experience, we are also excited for him to lead our growing military ministry. Join us in warmly welcoming Pastor Jefferey and the Rondeau family!
