

WELCOME GUESTS!

We are so glad you joined us this weekend and hope you find your time here rejuvenating and encouraging. If you're joining us at our Lakewood campus, please visit our Welcome Center in the Gathering Area - we'd love to know you are here and help you find ways to connect. Below are some tips for our Lakewood campus to help you feel comfortable.

- There is a Family Worship Room in the rear of the Worship Center where your children are free to move about.
- Please visit our self-serve Library in the Lower Lobby anytime the building is open.
- Join us for our next Starting Point class Sunday, October 12, at 11am in the Olympic Room to meet others looking for church community, learn about LC3, and meet pastors and staff.

Come with a friend who...

- Is curious about faith
- Has questions about Christianity
- Would appreciate a non-judgemental environment with no pressure

MISSION IN FOCUS

DALTON KALAS, CADENCE INTERNATIONAL

As a missionary with Cadence International, I am leading a men's ministry that runs parallel to the Cadence hospitality house ministry that serves the Soldiers and Airmen of JBLM.

My organization just released me to do ministry last month and so far, I am leading a men's group at my house, discipling guys individually, and planning other events for the men. I am also heavily involved in the other areas of the broader Cadence ministry. For example, I am on rotation to teach at the Friday night dinner at the Cadence House in DuPont. I also recently helped teach and run activities at our annual Labor Day retreat.

God willing, He will continue to use me in the transforming work He has planned for service members!

Prayer Requests:

- God would make me effective in discipling service members in the knowledge of Jesus Christ.
- God would produce the necessary fruit in these service members so they can represent Christ well in their units.
- God would provide the financial partners I need to reach my support goal (I am at 98%).

SHARING GOD'S FAITHFULNESS

KALIE REIGH PARROTT

This fall I will begin my freshman year at Colorado Christian University. For a long time, I asked the Lord when it would be the right time to share my story. I wanted others to know what He had done in my life, and I carried a deep desire to reflect His work in me.

This past June, God opened that door in an incredible way during a mission trip to Malawi, Africa. One evening, one of our pastors, Reese Carlson, asked me if I would like to share my testimony at a widow's visit. I hadn't expected this opportunity, but I knew the Lord was leading. On June 25, 2025, I stood before a group of widowed women at Jali Church and shared my story.

I hadn't written anything down or planned exactly what I would say—I simply prayed that God would help me speak from the heart. I told them about my life growing up: being born to a single mother, the blessing of my dad who later adopted me, and God's faithfulness through life's hardships. I shared about the helicopter crash in 2023 that claimed the lives of nine of my dad's colleagues, and how even in the midst of loss, the Lord's presence and strength carried us through.

As I spoke, I watched the women respond. They related to my story, and together we saw how God's faithfulness shines even in tragedy. It was deeply moving for me to see how God can take my story and use it to encourage others—reminding us all that He is near, He is faithful, and He is worthy of our trust.
