

Sarah Catherine Sonnenberg

Worship Arts Administrative Assistant

Sarah Catherine has been attending Trinity since 2016. After being a member of the worship team and choir for the past 10 years, she is happy to be on staff as an assistant to Worship Arts Director, Scotty Gullette.

Prior to taking on this role, Sarah Catherine taught private violin lessons around southeast Michigan and currently still performs with many local orchestras. She and her husband, Jake - who she met at Trinity in 2017 - have a son, Holden, and are eagerly awaiting the arrival of their second son in 2026!

Her Hope for Trinity:

"My hope for Trinity is that the church body continues to grow, thrive, and share the truth of Christ with the surrounding community and the world."
