National Quartet Convention

Gospel Music's Largest Annual Event,!
NQC - the National Quartet Convention - was founded in 1957 by gospel music legend and former backup vocalist for Elvis Presley, J.D. Sumner who co-produced the event with James Blackwood. The annual convention was moved in later years to Nashville, TN and then to Louisville, KY where it was held for 20 years. NQC is currently held at the LeConte Center in Pigeon Forge, TN.

Wednesday's Featured Events:

- Southern Gospel Awards Show
- Appearances by: Booth Brothers, Chuck Wagon Gang, The Hoppers, Karen Peck & New River, and many others

Thursday's Featured Events:

- Amateur Showcases
- Ministry by Dr Robert Jeffress
- Afternoon Concert by Collingsworth Family

Friday's Featured Events:

- Amateur Showcases
- Ministry by Dr David Jeremiah
- Gaither Sing-Along
