January -The Wishing Game

Years ago, a reclusive mega-bestselling children's author quit writing under mysterious circumstances. Suddenly he resurfaces with a brand-new book and a one-of-a-kind competition, offering a prize that will change the winner's life in this absorbing and whimsical novel.

February - And the Shofar Blew

Poignant tale about the danger of straying from God's true path. Energetic young pastor Paul Hudson rejuvenates a dying church and boosts attendance so high that a new building must be constructed. But in his eagerness to please the new devotees, Paul loses touch with what truly matters.

March - Sweep: The Story of a Girl and Her Monster

Sweep is the story of a girl and her monster. Together, these two outcasts carve out a life—saving one another in the process. By one of today's most powerful storytellers, Sweep is a heartrending adventure about the everlasting gifts of friendship and hope.

April - The Premonition at Withers Farm

A search for a family tree pulls Molly deep into a century-old murder case and a web of deception, all made more mysterious by the disturbing shadows and sounds inside the farmhouse.

May - The Giver of Stars

The story of five extraordinary women and their journey through the mountains of Kentucky and beyond.

June - The Last Song

The Last Song follows a troubled teenager as she reconnects with her estranged father and falls in love during a summer in a quiet southern United States beach town.

July - To Kill a Mockingbird

Set in small-town Alabama, the novel is a bildungsroman, or coming-of-age story, and chronicles the childhood of Scout and Jem Finch as their father Atticus defends a black man falsely accused of rape.

August - Hello Beautiful

The story of four sisters contending with life and loss, love, death and forgiveness, and finding different ways to cope with hardship.

September - The Day the World Came to Town (Non-Fiction)

The story of 38 jetliners rerouted to Gander, Newfoundland on September 11, 2001. About 6,000 passengers from around the world are greeted with an outpouring of friendship and goodwill rarely seen.

October - The Kite Runner

An epic tale of fathers and sons, of friendship and betrayal, that takes us from Afghanistan in the final days of the monarchy to the atrocities of the present.

November - Get Your Life Back (Non-Fiction)

Are you ready to get your life back? Join New York Times bestselling author John Eldredge as he shares practical, simple, and refreshing tips for living fully.

December - All the Lonely People

Hubert stumbles across a second chance at love, renews a cherished friendship, and finds himself roped into an audacious community scheme that seeks to end loneliness once and for all . . .
