BLANK CARDS Needed

We are seeking to replenish our supply of blank greeting cards. While we are well stocked with birthday, sympathy, Christmas, and other occasion-specific cards, we are currently in need of blank cards suitable for any occasion. Donations of any quantity—whether a full box or just a few unused cards—are greatly appreciated. Please drop off all cards at the church office or contact Amber Snyder.

ORGAN Project

Grand Lake United Methodist Church has a rich tradition of music supported by two pipe organs over the last century. The current organ, installed in 1980, has been faithfully maintained by the Lima Pipe Organ Company. In 2024, significant maintenance needs were identified, prompting the Trustees and organist Carol Zimmerman to assess long-term options, including visiting other churches and comparing alternatives.

After careful evaluation of cost, downtime, and future usability, the Trustees and organ committee - along with Carol - have recommended replacing the current pipe organ with a Rodgers Infinity Series digital organ from Classic Organs of Indiana INC.

Key reasons for choosing replacement:

- Cost: $133,000 for a new digital organ vs. $245,000 to refurbish current organ.
- Downtime: One week for installation vs. 4–6 months for refurbishing.
- Flexibility: Digital technology, playback capability, and easier playability for substitutes or future organists.

The new organ will maintain the sanctuary's traditional aesthetic and sound of the pipe organ. Speakers will be placed in existing pipe chambers, and the organ console will be relocated next to the piano on the chancel.

Financial Overview:

- Trust Account Committee contribution: $50,000
- Finance Committee contribution: $17,500
- Congregation contribution to date - $10,000
- Down payment needed: $66,500 (secured)
- Additional payments: $33,250 at factory completion and $33,250 at installation

$77,500 raised so far!!

The church invites the congregation to prayerfully consider contributing through check, cash, or online with "Organ Fund" marked on the memo line or envelope.

PASTORS

I'm very thankful these days for Netflix and other entertainment streaming services because they allow me to tune out all of the hateful partisan rhetoric that seems to have taken over social media and cable news. Don't get me wrong, I still stay abreast of the latest news stories the best I can. But I do it in small doses so as not to give the devil a foothold via the hate mongers all around. And yes, I do believe media sources have the power to give the devil a foothold in our hearts and lives if we aren't always on guard against it.

You might think that's an overstatement, but take a good, hard, honest look at just how comfortable good Christian folks have become with treating people in ways Jesus would never condone. We openly use military attacks to kill alleged drug traffickers despite the fact that it's not even a capital offense. We make sweeping cuts to social safety net programs that hurt the poorest among us under the guise of eliminating fraud. We round up brown people in large swaths, like a fisherman casting a net, then sort them out later (maybe).

Do I have your attention? Is your blood boiling yet? Political discussions tend to have that effect, don't they? That is not my intent. In fact, I have no desire to delve into partisan politics here. Instead, I want to take the advice of Rev. Dr. Mike Slaughter, former Pastor of Ginghamburg, who said, "The church should always be political, but never partisan." In other words, the church should speak up (and out) on issues without tying itself to a political party. Because the reality of it is, no party gets it all right all the time. So, if you find yourself going all in on one party or another, at some point you'll probably find yourself bumping up against the Gospel pretty hard.

Let me explain. I'm all for cracking down on drug traffickers and imposing harsh legal penalties. I am not, however, in favor of drone strike executions of them. I absolutely want to eliminate fraud across all levels of government, but I believe it needs to be strategic and laser-focused so we stop the guilty without harming the innocent. In other words, let's not throw out the baby with the bathwater. I support strong border security, but I also support a reasonable immigration policy and legitimate paths to citizenship, as well as humane enforcement and treatment of everyone.

I realize that these are real hot-button issues, and I'm not trying to convince anyone to follow one party's strategy over the other. In fact, I'd like to encourage you to step back from politics altogether and look not primarily through a partisan lens, but rather through your Christian lens. The old cliché question is very helpful here: What Would Jesus Do? WWJD. I'm sure you're all familiar with that one. For maximum effectiveness, I'm going to ask you to also look at that from a slightly different perspective: What Wouldn't Jesus Do? Still WWJD. Before you attempt to answer any of these questions, remember that Jesus had some pretty strong teachings regarding how we treat foreigners and how we treat the poor. That's not to say we can't have firm rules and regulations around these issues. It just means that those rules and regulations, and the enforcement thereof, need to be fair and humane. Contrary to popular belief, these are not either/or issues; they are both/and issues. Our policies can be both firm and humane. The same is true of their enforcement.

I believe we got to the place we're at because we bought in too easily, and too completely, to an us vs. them mentality. And the "them" is anyone who is different than us, whether it be in ideology, theology, skin color, social class, and the list goes on and on. But I submit to you that that is a false narrative. In the words of Maya Angelou from her poem "Human Family," "We are more alike, my friends, than we are unlike." And since the Bible tells us that we are all made in God's image, I'd say Maya is onto something. So my prayer is that we learn to focus on the many ways we are alike and build one another up rather than focusing on the few ways we are different and tear each other down. I mean c'mon. What would Jesus do? Use this Lenten season to really pray and meditate on what Jesus would have you do (and not do) regarding the hot button issues of our day. Invite the Holy Spirit to convict your heart, giving you the wisdom to discern God's will and the courage to live it out.

Lenten Blessings,
Pastor Mick

SERMON Series

During the season of Lent, we prepare ourselves spiritually for the journey to the cross and all that that means for our lives today. But this season of preparation is not something new or of our own invention. Jesus spent his entire ministry preparing the disciples for his eventual departure. As the time grew nearer for Jesus to go to the cross, he intensified his preparation of the disciples. John chapters 13-17 are often referred to as Jesus' Farewell Discourse. In it, Jesus shares some final instructions and encouragements designed to carry the disciples through the rough days ahead as well as a future without his physical presence.

This Lenten season we'll dive into Jesus' Farewell Discourse through our sermon series titled "Before I Go." The hope and prayer is that this series will prepare us, as modern-day disciples, for life in this fallen world. The beloved passages of Scripture in this series will teach and encourage us to remain faithful by staying connected to Christ, through the Spirit and through His church. Invite your friends, family, neighbors and coworkers to join us for this powerful 6-week series beginning Sunday, February 22. For those who want to go even deeper, check out the Francis Chan study "Jesus's Farewell Message" on RightNow Media.

MOBILE CHURCH Directory

If you have an email address listed in the Church Directory, you should have received an email from Universal Church Directories with information about our new Mobile Directory. That email included a unique identifier and simple instructions to help you get started.

If you do not have an email address listed but have access to a computer, you can still use the Mobile Directory. Just contact Stefanie, and she will provide you with your unique identifier.

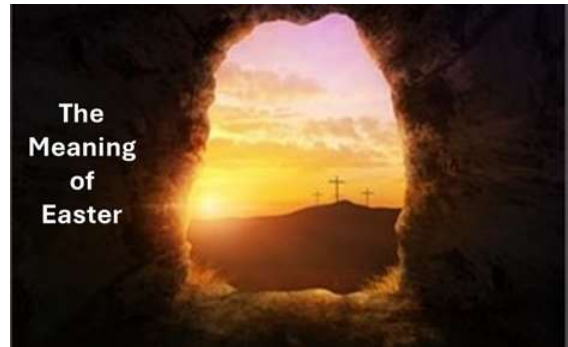

One of the great benefits of the Mobile Directory is that it can be updated at any time.

Families, individuals, and photos can be added or edited as needed, helping us keep our directory current until the next printed edition is created. It's a wonderful way to find addresses and phone numbers and to put faces with names.

If you have any questions or need help getting started, please reach out to Stefanie. She would be happy to walk you through the process.

LENTEN

Study

We probably all know the story of Easter. We know about the betrayal, the false trial, the crucifixion and the resurrection. We know the story. We know what the words say. But do we really understand what all of this means? Specifically, do we know what it means for each of us personally?

This Lenten season we'll delve deep into the true meaning of Easter. We'll ask hard questions and engage in deep discussions. We'll hear stories of the original disciples and share faith stories of our own. In so doing, we'll help each other grow in our faith, just as iron sharpens iron. So, if you have questions, or even doubts, as we all do, this is the study for you.

Join with Pastor Mick and Connie Davis on Wednesday evenings from 6:00 – 7:30pm for five weeks beginning February 25 to view and discuss the RightNow media study "Easter" by J.D. Greear. We'll start the Wednesday after Ash Wednesday and end the Wednesday before Holy Week, so you won't have to miss any of our special Lenten services.

MINISTRY EVENT

Form

Communications Update

A Ministry Event Form is available on the home page of our website or under the Ministries page. With so much happening at Grand Lake, this form helps us clearly and effectively share each event through slides, registrations, and other communication tools.

To allow adequate preparation and promotion, please submit the form 8–10 weeks before your event. We typically promote events for about six weeks.

If you have questions while completing the form, please feel free to contact the Church Office. We're glad to help!

SCHOLARSHIP

Opportunities

The Scholarship Committee annually makes available three different scholarships. These scholarships are for students enrolled in a two year or more accredited institution of higher learning.

2. Grand Lake Service Scholarship is available to any participating member or regular attendee of Grand Lake UMC. The award is made for unpaid service provided for Grand Lake UMC. Specific service is to be proposed through the application process and completed during the academic year. The scholarship is to be paid upon completion of the service.
3. Grand Lake UMC Student in Ministry is available to any participating member or regular attendee of Grand Lake UMC. Applicant must be enrolled as a full-time undergraduate or graduate student preparing for the ministry, Christian education, or a church-related vocation. These are given as a loan to the students and are forgiven upon verification of required years of ministry.

Application forms are available in the church office. Submission deadline is MARCH 31. These scholarships and the amounts granted are subject to the approval of the Church's Administrative Council. Distribution of checks will be prior to the Fall semester/quarter.

TRUSTEES

Update

After many years of constant use, the existing treads on the main steps have become worn and no longer provide the level of safety expected for our congregation and visitors. The Trustees are going to replace the stair treads, which were originally installed during the 1966 remodel, as part of our ongoing responsibility to maintain the church building. Completing this work during the summer months will allow the project to be done with minimal disruption to church activities. Replacing the stair treads will improve safety, extend the life of the staircase, and help preserve this important part of our church for years to come.
