EDUCATION

TOWSON UNIVERSITY, TOWSON, MD – B.S. JAZZ PIANO PERFORMANCE, 1996

I do not hold a graduate level seminary degree. I entered college in 1992 to pursue a career in music; becoming a teaching pastor was not even on the radar at the time. After 20 years primarily in music ministry, I transitioned to full-time teaching pastor at Calvary Baptist in 2016. I have looked into various graduate programs since then, however the SBC seminaries I prefer are cost prohibitive because the church where I serve is not part of the SBC. It remains a personal goal to obtain higher education credentials once the opportunity is available and feasible. Thanks to a God-given gift and call, diligent studying, and great mentors, my pastoral ministry has still been fruitful and blessed. Please feel free to confirm this with references and ask any questions you'd like.
