

PRAYER POINTS

Pray and call on God to make himself known in this situation as the God who is merciful and gracious.

Thank God for the mercies He has already shown.

Pray that the Lord Almighty will heal those injured in body and mind.

Pray that God watches over rescue operations and that He grants safety and unprecedented success to the recovery operations.

Pray for government agencies and leaders to respond wisely and efficiently.

Pray for the families of those who are mourning the loss of loved ones and all who are affected by this disaster.

Pray that many whose livelihoods are affected will experience God's provision and that the church effectively ministers to needs.

Remember Joseph's words. "As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good..." (Genesis 50:20). Pray God's good comes out of this disaster.

Pray for disaster response teams to experience favor with God and man as they are activated and deployed.

Pray for chaplains and those ministering to the community to speak God's message of love, comfort, and provision clearly, and to give wise responses to questions.
