CHAPTER 26

THE HOUR OF DARKNESS

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Join us again each week for our Wednesday Night Dinners at 6pm followed by a time of study.

Summer camps at Delano Bay have been back to back fantastic! With only one camp session left to go, our 4th–6th grade campers are making their way out today to wrap up another great summer of church camps at DBCC!

Did you know.... Our DBCC campers get daily CamperGrams? If you are interested in encouraging any of our youth while they're away at camp, simply send them an email to dbcccampergram@gmail.com with the camper's name as the subject line. They'll LOVE it!

There will be a celebration of life to honor June Ormerod on July 26th at 11am here at Central Kitsap Church of Christ with a reception to follow. In lieu of flowers, consider a donation made to guidingeyes.org, a seeing eye dog charity that was a favorite of Grandma June's.

Check out this summer ministry opportunity with LST (Let's Start Talking)! LST is an amazing program that will allow you to connect with people all over the world, sharing the good

A MESSAGE FROM THE ELDERS:

June

She sat near the back, in quiet solitude, waiting to visit or welcome you.

She filled her day with the work of her hands, be it quilting, writing, texting, or Facebooking with her many family and friends.

She loved the old hymns but felt it important to learn new ones too,
And if you were up for a game of scrabble, well, she'd readily challenge you.

The qualities of goodness and kindness were for her of great worth, for faith was centric to her life here on earth.

So, she shared her faith with others as oft she could,
making it look easy, wherever she stood.

She shared her talents, experiences too,
teaching others about mothering,
jamming,
canning,
and how to quilt,

living her days "firm on the Rock" , just as the wise man built.

Though she birthed a large flock of children her own her love always extended to others unknown.

She welcomed them into her family;
it was her labor of love fulfilled most happily.

"June is my name, that parts true",
"but you could call me Grandma June, if you wanted too".

So, over the years, that is who she became,
Grandma to all, the one and the same.

Proverbs 31:29-31

Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all. Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. Honor her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.

June departed to be with the Lord on June 9. This coming Saturday, July 26, we will gather with her extended and adopted family to celebrate her life, and you are invited. Service begins at 11AM followed by a family style lunch with selections of her favorite foods.

MISSION CORNER:

7/11/25 Help for Ruidoso, New Mexico:

Tomorrow morning, the Mountain View Church of Christ in Alto, NM, will be unloading a 53' trailer full of pre-packed boxes of food, personal hygiene, infant care, cleaning supplies, along with pillows, sheets, and blankets, plus pallets of water, bleach, laundry detergent, along with new clothing, at Pillow's Funtrackers in Ruidoso, which they are using as a distribution center, to help those families affected by the flash flooding that took place Tuesday in the Ruidoso area.

We have not had any more requests for basis supplies in Texas, but we know that H-E-B Grocery Co. (based in San Antonio, Texas) sent a number of semi-trailers full of food and other items to the Texas Hill Country flood areas. We're ready and standing by for additional requests.

Summer at the Missions is an exciting time. The kids have a short break from school, and they go to camp. Camp was an essential part of God's work in my heart in my own life. So I'm so thankful that our kids get to experience camp.

In Baja, the highlight of the summer for all the kids is "family camp." With all of the kids and houseparents, the entire home goes off to camp, swim, play games, and hear God's word together.

Camp is one of the ways we create an environment for our kids where they can experience joy and spend concentrated time hearing about God's love for them.

Camp is also just one example of what we can do because of your generosity to His Ministry. Thank you for being such a vital part of our team who helps care for our children throughout the year.

In Him,
Janelle Keller, Executive Director
Foundation For His Ministry
