A MESSAGE FROM THE ELDERS:

For the first time in several months the word snow in the mountains is creeping into the weather forecast. Hopefully as winter approaches, we can slow down and do some of the things we couldn't get around to during the good weather. This is a superb time for renewing relationships with family and friends.

Do any of your winter projects have a spiritual side? Scripture tells us that Christ has called each of us to be his disciple. So now that I have time where do I start? Let us start by learning more about God's word, the Bible. As we study the Bible, we will see the broad scope of the Father's Love for us and realize our need to grow closer to Him. Even Christ needed to spend time with the Father. Read Mark 1:35-39, Luke 14:22-24, and John 17 to start. If we desire to be like Christ, we must learn the skills of study and spending time with the Father in prayer and meditation. As an aid to your spiritual growth, the congregation provides classes both Sunday morning and Wednesday evening.

As we close out the year, we want to intentionally lift up the men and women around the world who are opening Scripture with us. Join the LST Staff for a meaningful hour of guided prayer as we intercede for LST Readers worldwide—asking God to prepare hearts, deepen relationships, and open doors for His Word to bring peace and transformation. Let's step into this sacred time together and surround our Readers with prayer.
