

The Fountain

From the Pastor...

As St. Valentine's Day approaches, love will be in the air and on the minds of many. Most will think of secular sentiments of romantic love. The euphoric feeling of love is wonderful, but incomplete and insufficient for enduring relationships.

In the Bible love is frequently paired with faithfulness. Psalm 85:10 says, "Love and faithfulness meet together; righteousness and peace kiss each other." As peace is impossible apart from righteousness, true love is inseparable from faithfulness.

Saint Valentine wasn't merely a promoter of love in a generic romantic sense. He was a defender of the sanctity and necessity of covenant marriage as the solid foundation of and proper framework for the expression of love between a man and a woman. Marriage is important because it anchors feelings of love that inevitably ebb and flow in the more solid soil of one's commitment to be faithful to one's spouse through the vicissitudes of life and emotions. True love can't be separated from faithfulness. Love that lasts, is a love that is loyal.

This is what God's love is like according to the Bible. Indeed, the Bible says, "God is love" (1John 4:8). Now this doesn't mean "love is God." In other words, we should start with secular notions of love to understand God. Instead, we need to start with the revelation of God in His word to really know and understand what true love is really supposed to be. God's love is a loyal and faithful love. In Christ Jesus, God invites us to share in His love and share His kind of love with each other.

In Christian love,

Pastor Cliff Wall

Have you been blessed by our Father with the gift of a beloved pet---now or in the past? Are you a responsible caretaker, providing them with the love and care they need? Have you thanked God for the companionship & joy your pet brings or the snuggles that have touched your heart? Please join us as we create dog and cat treats that you can take home to offer your fur baby and that we can share with needy neighbors. We'll also be making bird feeders that we plan to place outside the windows of some of our homebound members.
