Today we will be studying Chapter 30 of the Story. The goal of this entire program had been to look at the "upper story" of what God has been up to in the world throughout human history. With Jesus risen from the tomb and the Holy Spirit poured out onto the church, we can now watch what God is up to in a new era of human history of which we continue to live in: the age of the Holy Spirit. The Apostle Paul's ministry will focus our hearts and minds on something I call "The Great Misconception" which has unfortunately plagued Christ's church and followers from the first days. We will not only explore what the "Great Misconception" is but how to embrace God's activity in every season of our lives. The following questions may be helping you reflect and apply this message to your week ahead:

1. In your own words, what is the "Great Misconception" that Pastor Rob speaks of?
2. Create a spiritual journey timeline of your life...include not only significant spiritual moments but also include emotional, relational, and vocational moments in the timeline.
3. By locating the seasons of struggle, hardship, or challenge on your timeline, can you reflect on how God was with you in those times, you were transformed during those times, or how you can even be thankful for those seasons in retrospect?
