The Psalms of Ascent, spoken and sang by the People of Israel as they approached Jerusalem and the Temple on special occasions can be found in Psalms 120-134. These ancient Psalms have formed our summer sermon series and taught us some deep and abiding discipleship lessons this summer. This Sunday's Psalm of Ascent is Psalm 132. As we walk with the faithful people of God, this week's psalm reminds us of the history of the building of God's Temple, the promises of God, and lead us to reflect on our relationship with Jesus.

The New Testament hope of being in the presence of God does not focus us on a place but rather upon the person of Jesus Christ. I hope the following questions will help you go deeper into reflection upon this ancient Psalm:

1. What tripped Pastor Rob up when he first read this Psalm and have you ever been tripped up by the same phenomenon?
2. What is the basic instinct behind David's desire to build the Temple for God's presence to abide and how does it speak to you today?
3. This Psalm invites us to tell our faith journey story. How have you come to be in relationship with Jesus Christ? What is the current status of that relationship? Where is Jesus and the Holy Spirit leading you in your life?
