Mark 5:25–34

BIG IDEA:

1. Hidden in _____: She was _____ in a story she didn't
_____. – Mark 5:25–26
2. Silenced by _____: Her _____ became the _____ she hid behind. – Mark 5:26
3. Driven by _____: A small amount of _____ pushed her to be _____ to _____. – Mark 5:27–29
4. Restored by _____: Jesus called her out of _____ and into a new _____. – Mark 5:30–34

READ: Mark 5:25–34

REFLECT: The woman's bleeding disorder made her ritually unclean. However, she touched Jesus' robe, believing he could heal her. Jesus healed her physically but also emotionally and socially. She went from outcast to daughter of the King, from hopeless to healed, from shame to dignity, from despair to peace, from death to life.

RESPOND: How can you reach out to Jesus when you are lonely and discouraged? How can you reach out to others who may be lonely? What are some next steps you can take?

Tuesday

READ: Isaiah 41:10

REFLECT: This passage was written to God's people exiled in Babylon. They experienced displacement, loss, and chaos. We experience something similar when we feel lonely. As God promised his presence in this passage, he gives the same promise to us. He is near and constant. He is worthy of our trust, especially during days of loneliness.

RESPOND: Think back to times when God was near in your loneliness. How can what you learned then help you today? Ask God to show you who needs this encouragement.

Wednesday

READ: 1 Kings 19:9–18

REFLECT: After a big victory on God's behalf, Elijah spiraled into depression and feelings of loneliness. He thought he was the only one still serving God. But God reminded him of thousands in Israel who had not worshiped Baal. Elijah's depression led him to believe he was alone. God revealed the opposite was true — he was far from alone.

RESPOND: How does knowing you're not alone change how you face fears or challenges? What might "God's righteous right hand" look like in times of loneliness or hardship?

Thursday

READ: Hebrews 13:5

REFLECT: We sometimes try to fill the void in our lives with money and material things and can exhaust ourselves in this pursuit. We miss God's invitation to his presence. This passage calls for us to shift our priorities to God's presence over possessions.

RESPOND: Are you trying to fill a void in your life with anything other than him? How can you anchor yourself in God rather than material things? Give him thanks for all he has given.

Friday

READ: Psalm 25:16–18

REFLECT: David expresses a profound dependence on God amid loneliness, despair, and pain. His posture is one of humility and trust in God's strength and presence. We can follow David's example by being honest about our pain and leaning on God's presence.

RESPOND: When and where are you tempted to withdraw from God and lean into loneliness and despair? Think of someone you can encourage in their loneliness.
