Discussion Questions

Monday

READ: Matthew 4:18-20

REFLECT: Jesus saw Peter and Andrew fishing in the lake and invited them to leave their work and follow him. Rather than fishing for fish, Jesus wanted them to fish for souls. Peter and Andrew immediately responded, followed Jesus, and became his disciples. They didn’t know where following him would lead but they felt compelled to obey.

RESPOND: What was your response when Jesus called you to follow him? Spend time thanking him for his grace that enabled you to follow him.

Tuesday

READ: Matthew 8:18-22

REFLECT: The teacher of the Law looked to Jesus and wanted to learn from him. He even confessed that he was willing to follow him anywhere to do so. Jesus asked him to consider the cost of following him. Following Jesus is not easy. In fact, the road is often more challenging than if we didn’t. But it is always worth it.

RESPOND: Think of reasons why the benefits of following Jesus outweigh any difficulties. Spend time praising him for the grace he gives you to follow him.

Wednesday

READ: Matthew 9:9-13

REFLECT: Matthew was a social outcast whom Jesus called to follow him. After Matthew followed, he hosted a dinner where his friends and colleagues spent time with Jesus. We often forget that our decision to follow Jesus influences others in our circles. In fact, God could be using our obedience to encourage others to also follow him!

RESPOND: Write down names of those in your circle who could be impacted by your obedience to Jesus. Pray for them and ask God to help you be aware of your influence.

Thursday

READ: Mark 10:17-22

REFLECT: When Jesus asked the young, wealthy man to give away his possessions and follow him, he did not. When we don’t choose to follow Jesus, we choose sorrow. We may try to find happiness elsewhere, but in the end, we will regret not following him.

RESPOND: Think of a time when you followed something or someone other than Jesus. What can you do, by God’s grace, to choose him now and in the days ahead?

Friday

READ: 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

REFLECT: Communion reminds us to reflect on how we’re following Jesus and to recognize his work in our lives. Baptism shows the inner change Jesus has already done in us, while Communion celebrates the work he continues to do. Both baptism and Communion remind us of his grace and that he continually invites us to follow him.

RESPOND: How has God worked in your heart this week? Thank him for what he has done as you look forward to celebrating him this Advent season.
