15 MINUTE DAILY

Monday

READ: Matthew 5:43-48

REFLECT: “Love your neighbor but hate your enemy” was a common concept in Jesus’ day. This attitude saturated the Jewish culture but did not reflect the character of God. God’s people are called to a different standard. The true test for Jesus-followers is how we treat those we are naturally inclined to hate.

RESPOND: Who are your “enemies?” Write them down. Ask God to help you pray for blessing upon their lives.

Tuesday

READ: Luke 6:27-36

REFLECT: Verse 27 contains three words that explain what it means to “love your enemies.” Notice that Jesus doesn’t tell us how to feel toward our enemies but how to act toward them. First, we are to do good to them. Second, we are to bless them instead of curse them. Third, we are to pray for them.

RESPOND: How can you do good to an enemy today? Ask God to give you wisdom and strength to do what you know you cannot do in your own power.

Wednesday

READ: 1 Timothy 2:1-4

REFLECT: We often make those in authority our enemies. Therefore, we often omit them from our prayers. However, Jesus tells us to pray for our leaders so they will have the knowledge and wisdom to rule for the common good. Additionally, because God wants all to be saved, He wants us to also pray for their salvation.

RESPOND: Pick several authorities over you (i.e., supervisor, political leader) and pray for them to demonstrate wise leadership. Pray for their salvation if they do not know Jesus.

Thursday

READ: Proverbs 24:17-18

REFLECT: This proverb is about gloating over our enemy’s downfall because it involves the possibility that God will reverse His judgment and stop punishing the enemy. When reading this, we may stop our gloating in case God decides to stop punishing them. However, this proverb reminds us to fear God and place justice in His hands.

RESPOND: How can you place justice in God’s hands while also not being silent or avoiding taking action toward injustices you experience?

Friday

READ: Proverbs 25:21-22

REFLECT: This proverb teaches us to love our enemies by doing good to them. The best way to “get back” at our enemy is to repay them with kindness. While our motive must be out of love, doing good to them may make them examine their posture toward us.

RESPOND: What are some acts of service you can do for your enemies? Spend time praying for enemies and ask God to give you wisdom regarding these acts of service.

*Baptism Class (Required)
Sunday, August 10 or Sunday, August 17*

Baptism is an outward expression of an inward commitment to follow Jesus Christ. After we have taken a first step toward Christ by surrendering to Him as Lord and Savior, the next step is to be baptized. It is a celebration of new life in Christ, and a public declaration of our new identity.

If you've made a decision to follow Christ and are ready to be baptized, we invite you to make a public profession of your faith at our special outdoor baptism celebration on August 24.
