Clinton Faupel

Executive Director and Co-Founder, RemedyLIVE

BIG IDEA: The _____ begins with the battle for the _____.

– Nehemiah 4:6

1. The enemy uses _____ from the outside and _____ on the inside to try to stop the rebuild.

– Nehemiah 4:1–3, 8

2. I choose to fight for those I love with _____ in God.

– Nehemiah 4:14

3. Rebuilding requires _____ because this battle is a
 _____, not a sprint. – Nehemiah 4:16

4. To rebuild my life as a Kingdom citizen, I must carry _____ to fight with and _____ to build with. – Nehemiah 4:17

5. When the battle intensifies, the trumpet calls us back to _____, unity, and the _____ that God fights for us. – Nehemiah 4:20

6. Rebuilding means I _____ give up; I am always called to _____.
 – Nehemiah 4:23

 Discussion Questions

Monday

READ: Nehemiah 4:1-3

REFLECT: Sanballat and Tobiah mocked the work — not because it was an unworthy task — but because it threatened their control. Their mockery attempted to shrink confidence and make obedience seem foolish. The enemy will often attack through discouragement. Before any stone is laid, the mind must decide whose voice will carry weight.

RESPOND: What voices do you allow to carry the most weight? How can you minimize the voices that are unhealthy and increase the influence of those that are healthy?

Tuesday

READ: Nehemiah 4:4-6

REFLECT: Nehemiah refused to argue with his critics; instead he prayed. Prayer turns the battle from human opinion to God's authority. Rebuilding moves forward when prayer guards the heart from absorbing the enemy's narrative.

RESPOND: Make a plan to spend time in prayer daily. If you already have a prayer plan, how can you improve it?

Wednesday

READ: Nehemiah 4:7-10

REFLECT: When threats increased and exhaustion grew, discouragement took root. The people focused on what remained undone rather than what God had already done. Weariness clouds perspective. Fear grows louder when our strength is depleted. Rebuilding slows not because the task is impossible, but due to discouragement.

RESPOND: If discouragement is dominating your mind, tell someone about it. Spend time praising God for what he has already done. Write down specifics.

Thursday

READ: Nehemiah 4:13-14

REFLECT: Nehemiah confronted the people's fear by calling them to remember God. Their courage was restored by magnifying God. When our mind recalls God's power, our faith regains its clarity. The battle for our mind is often won through intentional remembrance — choosing truth over threat and trust over terror.

RESPOND: How are you magnifying God's power in your mind? How are you choosing to trust in God over the terror in front of you?

Friday

READ: Nehemiah 4:16-20

REFLECT: The people rebuilt with tools in one hand and weapons in the other. Progress and vigilance go together. God's work progresses when his people remain alert — protecting their mind as they pursue their calling. Rebuilding continues when faith refuses to surrender mental ground.

RESPOND: What unfinished work in your life has stalled because of a mental battle? What steps can you take to address this unfinished work?
