Nehemiah 1

BIG IDEA: Before God _____ anything _____ you,

He _____ something _____ you.

A Formed Heart Is:

1. _____ to what is _____. (vv. 1:1–3)

2. _____ before _____. (v. 1:4)

3. _____ in God's _____ and _____.

(v. 1:5–10)

4. _____ to be _____ by God. (v. 1:11)

Monday

READ: Nehemiah 1:1–4

REFLECT: Nehemiah responded to bad news with prayer, compassion, and action. Rather than being angry, he sought the Lord and was able to respond calmly in the face of devastation. Prayer anchors us in the same way. When we learn to practice God's presence through prayer, we will respond to difficulties in a way that is pleasing to God.

RESPOND: What is your first response when facing devastation? How does your response reflect your trust in God?

Tuesday

READ: Nehemiah 1:5–7

REFLECT: Nehemiah began his prayer with a declaration of who God is. He viewed the devastation through God's character, rather than viewing God through the devastation. When we begin our prayers with a recognition of who God is, our perspective aligns with what God can and will do rather than focusing on our circumstances.

RESPOND: Take time to follow Nehemiah's structure for praying. First, praise God for who he is. Then confess your sins to him. Then make your requests to him.

Wednesday

READ: Nehemiah 1:8–9

REFLECT: Nehemiah asked God to act based on how God had acted in the past. Again, Nehemiah's trust was based on God's character, not the circumstances he faced. He knew God was faithful and true so he called on God to fulfill his promise.

RESPOND: Write down several of God's promises that apply to the circumstances you are facing. Ask him to act based on these promises and be willing to obey his leading.

Thursday

READ: Nehemiah 1:10

REFLECT: Nehemiah's trust in God's character was strong; he knew God was able, and trusted him to act in his time. We can trust God to such an extent that we are willing to surrender to whatever he asks of us. Prayer is not only about asking God for something; it also reveals what God is asking of us.

RESPOND: What could God be asking of you as you trust in him? Write down several possibilities and ask him to help you surrender to and obey him.

Friday

READ: Isaiah 6:8

REFLECT: After seeing God for who he truly is, Isaiah's response was surrender. He had a heart of availability and was willing to go wherever the Lord sent him. As we pray, we discover who God is. The more we discover who God is, the more we are willing to do what he says and go where he directs.

RESPOND: How available are you for God to use? Ask God to increase your willingness to pray and discover more of him.
