A Message from the NBC Pastor Search Team

The interim period without a Pastor is a crucial time for churches to strengthen their prayer life, experience renewal, and deepen our love for one another. As your Pastor Search Team, we have committed ourselves to prayer and God's guidance in all we do. We also covet your prayers during this season of transition and change.

We invite you to pray with us on a daily basis as we seek God to seek our next pastor. On September 7th, we shared a 31-day prayer guide, with those attending the worship service, to help guide your prayers for the Search Team, the church body, and the Pastor and family that God is preparing for His church. If you did not receive a prayer guide, copies are available in the sanctuary on the table by the AV area, in the fellowship hall, or by contacting the church office. As you give God your time and attention, He will surely guide your thoughts. (Isaiah 55:3)

In October, you will be asked to give the Pastor Search Team your thoughts and desires for our next pastor in the form of a survey. Also, feel free to share any thoughts you may have with one of the Pastor Search Team members. As your Pastor Search Team, we want to move forward with God's full direction and wisdom. As we journey together, we ask that you commit, along with us, to daily prayer for Nashville Baptist Church.

God has promised abundant wisdom to those who seriously seek Him. (James 1:5)
