ADVENT SEASON

The Advent Season starts today. Join us each Sunday as we journey toward the birth of Christ. During the next month join us for worship on Sundays at 10am, engage with daily devotions via email, light the candles of your advent log, join us for mid-week events to bring space, peace, joy, and connection. And finally, join us for Christmas Eve worship on Dec. 24 at 3pm and 5pm. It's a season of light in the midst of dark days!

MATTHEW 24:36-44 (THE INCLUSIVE BIBLE)

Jesus continued: "No one knows that day and that hour – not the angels of heaven, nor even the Only Begotten – only Abba God. The coming of the Promised One will be just like Noah's time. In the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, having relationships, and getting married, right up to the day Noah entered the ark. They were totally unconcerned until the flood came and destroyed them. So it will be at the coming of the Promised One. Two people will be out in the field; one will be taken and one will be left. Two people will be grinding meal; one will be taken and one will be left. Therefore, be vigilant! For you don't know the day your Savior is coming. Be sure of this: if the owner of the house had known when the thief was coming, the owner would have kept a watchful eye and not allowed the house to be broken into. You must be prepared in the same way. The Promised One is coming at the time you least expect."

"Listen, God—please pay attention.

Can you make sense of all my groans and cries?

Listen, God—I need your help.

Every morning you'll hear me at it again.

Every morning, I lay out the pieces of my life on your altar and watch for fire to descend." – Psalm 5 by Porter's Gate

For what do you groan and cry?

What are you waiting for?

Where are you looking for God's arrival in your life or our world?

What pieces of your life do you hold in this season?
