Thank You: Dear church family, Thank you so very much for the Sunshine Basket of goodies. It means so very much to me. All the candy and other things, especially the Word Search books. They are exactly what the doctors are having me do to help my brain after the stroke. Thank you for your prayers. I do believe they are being answered. Evidenced by my being able to write this note with my paralyzed right hand. Love to all, Linda Pryce

Thank You: Dear friends, What a wonderful surprise to see Charlaine and Elaine walk in to see me. I know I was so excited that I acted like a child when I saw the basket of goodies. I want to thank all who had a part in preparing the gift. I also thank you so much for the visit. That was a wonderful day as I had so many drop by for a visit. Thanks also to Rev. Lee for the card. It broke my heart to hear of the passing of Randy, he was a dear friend of mine. Love you all, I miss you and my Sunday school class. Oh, yes, I am beginning to walk some; I hold on still but I can turn loose at times. Love you all, Jeannette.
