WORSHIP THROUGH RESPONSE

Invitational Hymn 215	Majesty	Hayford/Thomas
If you feel led to join First Baptist Church or to make a commitment to follow Christ and be baptized, our minister will be happy to talk with you. If you are ready to make a decision at this time, you are invited to come forward now and share that decision with the minister.

Benediction	Rev. Monroe
Postlude

WE ARE CHARGED TO SERVE ONE ANOTHER

* A special thank you is extended to Donna Staton for serving as our accompanist today.

Preaching Today: Bill Monroe was born March 25, 1945, the 13th of 14 children. He has been married for 21 years to Joan McDuffie Monroe and they share four children, 11 grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. He served in the U. S. Airforce, Mecklenburg County Police Department and a Detective with Seaboard Coastline Railroad. He entered into full time ministry in 1998 after successfully completing a 5-year Course of Study at Duke Divinity. He has served four churches over the past 26 years. He believes and preaches the Bible as the inspired Word of God, which must not be compromised, diluted, added too, or taken away from. God’s Word remains relevant in the 21st Century regardless of popular opinion or the World’s View.

Announcements

Operation Christmas Child (OCC): We continue to collect Operation Christmas Child items and plan to have a box packing party in November. There is a Operation Christmas Child donation box in the hallway outside the church office. Each Month we will print the list in the Informer and each week in the Sunday bulletin.

Sept: school supplies such as pencils, sharpener, erasers, pencil holder, crayons, glue stick, scissors, small backpack

As always, please remember no guns, military toys (nothing war related).

Friends and Family Day: Sunday, October 5th. This will be a day that you and I invite our family, friends, neighbors, and our community members who are searching for hope, peace of mind and purpose to join us at FBC Rockingham for worship and fellowship. There will be a fellowship meal following worship.
