

Life Group Study

Give the group some time to chat with each other before you dive into the discussion.

Opener: Share about the best or worst boss you've ever had. What made them memorable?

Read: Matthew 20:1-16

Questions: Was there anything that stood out to you from the sermon on Sunday or from your reading of Matthew?

In the parable, why were the all-day workers upset? Can you relate to their feelings? Why or why not?

How does this parable challenge our natural human understanding of fairness?

Peter asked Jesus, "What do we get out of it?" (Matthew 19:27). When have you found yourself asking similar questions about your relationship with God?

The pastor identified justice and generosity as essential traits for creating equity. Where do you see opportunities to practice both in your daily life?

What are some practical ways we can "celebrate generosity" rather than begrudge it when we see God working in others' lives?

Prayer: Pray for those you can invite into the vineyard, and the opportunity to do so.
