Camp Rules
June 15th - 20th

No going into cabins during the day to take a nap or hang out. If you need something, you must bring an adult with you to go in. (Unless it's during downtime).

Cabins:

Absolutely NO switching cabins.

Lights out means go to sleep. No playing around or loud talking.

Sleep in your assigned room.

Don't get in any others' beds.

The entire cabin must be present at the dining hall before you get in line.

Keep your cabin clean (points will be awarded each day to the team with the cleanest boys' and girls' cabin)

Keep your stuff in your area.

Don't touch other people's stuff.

Dining Hall:

Stay out of the kitchen.

Clean up after yourselves.

If you move a chair, return it to its original position before you leave.

Service:

You must 'clean up' before service.

Do not talk or disrupt the service.

No restroom breaks during service. (There will be time right before the service to use the restroom.)

During service and altar times, stay in the tabernacle.

Focus on the Lord, not others around you.

Sign below to acknowledge you have carefully read, understood, and adhere to all the rules.
