The Lesson: Hebrews 10:19-25

Key Verse: Hebrews 10:22, 24 & 25

Let us approach (the sanctuary) with a true heart in full assurance of faith...And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

The Devotion:

My thoughts have swirled about writing this devotion. I have asked God to show me, help me, write through me. Show me, He did. My job at a local health food store has opened up a world of opportunities to share thoughts, life experiences, and in the end, FAITH! I hear people who are in pain, physically and mentally. Show me Lord! My consultations and discourse almost always lead to spiritual ends. God's unmistakable plan. People are so receptive and so very thirsty for more. "Yes, I can encourage you, yes, I care about you!" Therefore, "Provoke one another to love and good deeds". Help me. "Not neglecting to meet together".

During my mom's last year in her new living space, I would read to my mom, usually about the many vacations we took together. Mom wasn't talking much anymore, but, she was definitely listening. One day after reading a devotion to her, I realized that she probably wanted more than passive listening. Enter You Tube & Hymns. Mom was just picking up where she left off, singing like a lark in her new sanctuary! My newest and most fond memories started that day. Her mouth was moving more than I had seen in months! Blessings were abundant from that day on during our visits. There's that beautiful plan again. Write through me. People are searching for more. More than this present world. More than what their eyes can see. They long for YOU without knowing.

The Prayer:

Dear Jesus, thank you for always being there. Remind us to remind others there is so much more than what we see. Be a constant lightbulb in our brains to continue your story, your plan, and your relentless walk with us. Amen..
