

Larry Stucky & Barbara Bentley

have a special message for you...

We are getting married!!

(Virtually and in real life)

<https://www.youtube.com/live/wDAso1ypp9w?feature=share> is the link to the online viewing of our wedding.

We have been counting our blessings of friends, family, colleagues, and students on six continents! Super blessed!

Alas! The fire marshal says we can't all fit into the church building, but you would gladden our hearts by joining us virtually for our wedding.

Save the date and realtime: The musical prelude and livestream start around 12:45 pm PDT (Pacific Daylight Time—that's GMT-7), 15 July, 2023. Our wedding starts 15 minutes later at 1:00 pm PDT.

... or tune in after the fact (at least for a few months)

A clickable link to the livestream is below this invitation. Feel free to write a comment and to interact during our wedding using the chat feature on YouTube.
