

Bethel Church Privacy Policy

Effective Date: July 11, 2025

At Bethel Church, your privacy is important to us. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, protect, and share your personal information when you interact with our church, website, mobile app, or other digital platforms. Our commitment is to steward your information with care, in a way that reflects our mission and values.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect personal information through various means, including but not limited to:

- Contact Information: Name, email address, phone number, mailing address.
 - Demographic Information: Age, gender, family members, marital status.
 - Account Information: Login credentials, user preferences.
 - Payment Information: Giving history, billing address, credit/debit card details (processed through secure third-party providers).
 - Participation Data: Event registrations, serving involvement, small group participation.
 - Communication Preferences: Subscriptions to newsletters, updates, or alerts.
 - Technical Data: IP address, browser type, device information, and usage statistics through cookies or similar technologies.

2. How We Use Your Information

We use your personal information to:

- Communicate with you about church events, ministry updates, and opportunities.
- Process donations, event registrations, and volunteer sign-ups.
- Provide access to online tools like discipleship groups, giving records, and ministry platforms.

- Improve our services and tailor content to better serve our community.
 - Comply with legal and regulatory requirements.

3. Sharing Your Information

We do not sell your personal information.

We may share your information with:

- Trusted third-party service providers who assist with church operations (e.g., payment processors, church management software, email platforms).
- Ministry partners or team leaders when necessary for facilitating your involvement.
- Legal authorities when required by law or to protect the rights and safety of Bethel Church or its members.

All partners and vendors are required to uphold strict confidentiality and security standards.

4. How We Protect Your Information

We implement a range of security measures to maintain the safety of your personal information, including:

- Secure servers and encrypted communications.
 - Role-based access control to sensitive data.
 - Regular audits and best practices to protect against unauthorized access or disclosure.

5. Your Choices and Rights

You have the right to:

- Access or update your personal information.
- Opt-out of non-essential communications at any time.

- Request deletion of your account or certain personal information, subject to legal and ministry obligations.

To exercise any of these rights, contact us at Info@BethelChandler.com.

6. Cookies and Online Tracking

Our website and digital platforms may use cookies or similar technologies to enhance your experience. You may disable cookies through your browser settings, but this may limit some functionality of our site.

7. Children's Privacy

We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13 without parental consent. If you believe we have collected such information in error, please contact us immediately.

8. Third-Party Links

Our platforms may contain links to third-party sites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of those sites. We encourage you to review their privacy policies before sharing information.

9. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. All updates will be posted on our website with a revised effective date. We encourage you to review it periodically.
