ANNOUNCEMENTS

During the month of November, we are supporting our Coddle Creek Backpack Ministry to support local children and families during the Thanksgiving season. A list of needed items will be posted in the narthex and on our website.

“This basket was crafted by longtime church member Luther Gibbs. The Gibbs family has played a significant role in the life and history of Fair View, and Mr. Gibbs’s work is a cherished part of that legacy. He wove oak baskets of various sizes and designs from oak splits, and even used wal-nuts soaked in water to naturally dye some of his creations. This particu-lar basket was woven in the early 1980s. Mr. Gibbs’s daughter, JoAnn Neill, is a devoted member of Fair View, and we are blessed to have his grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren as part of our church family as well.”

There are a few seats open on the bus for the youth’s Friday trip to Operation Christmas Child Processing Center in Charlotte. If you are interested in going and helping please contact Danyel ASAP to get signed up. We will plan to meet at 12:00, be at the processing center from 1-5 then stop for dinner on the way back.
