

Sunday September 14, 2025 Job Chapters 23:8-10
“Starting Line”

My N_____ S_____ a C_____ R_____ for why T_____ O_____

- E_____ will have T_____ F_____ L_____
- S_____ F_____ L_____ is my S_____ L_____

Starting Line Thinking ...

#1 Make C_____ you K_____ W_____ the Starting Line, S_____
Psalms 116:12-15

#2 Make A_____ of what you H_____ to W_____ W_____
Jeremiah 17:5-10

#3 Set My P_____ at a L_____ you’ve S_____ A_____ R_____
I Corinthians 11:1
Esther 3:8-7:10
Romans 15:4

#4 D_____ you will F_____ N_____ M_____ the O_____

#5 At E_____ Starting Line, A_____ with L_____, is H_____

My Notes: _____

Week of Sunday September 14, 2025

Job 23:8-10 - “Starting Line”

Briefly share what point(s) from Sunday’s Study spoke most to you?

Ice Breaker: Going around the room, have everyone #1 Share the Bible Character they will look forward to meeting in heaven, #2 briefly share about someone close to you who is in heaven.

Let’s focus on heaven for the majority of this weeks Life Group experience
 Assign different individuals the task of looking up and being ready to read one of the following verses.

Psalms 14:2, 33:14 – How does knowing God looks upon you, give you comfort?

I Corinthians 2:9-10 – Discuss what is each individuals fascination of nature
 (waterfalls, stars, mountains, etc.)

What does your mind then think about heaven?

What features would you hope are there?

Matthew 5:12, Revelation 22:1-12, Matthew 25:21

- what does a heavenly inheritance mean to you?

What is one thing you are thankful will not be an inheritance in heaven?
 (age spots? Lack of sleep? Etc. Have fun on this one)

II Corinthians 5:8, Philippians 1:23, Ecclesiastes 3:11

What is something you are longing for right now? (holidays? a trip? Etc.)

What recently has renewed a personal longing for heaven?

What in our lives, causes that longing to wade?

Discuss how we can remain fresh in a longing for heaven.

Close in Prayer for one another

[illegible]