

Read Daniel 4:1-3, 28-37 and answer questions 6-10 on pages 73-74 in the Be Resolute book.

Additional questions:

1. In verses 1-3, do you believe that King Nebuchadnezzar was sincere with his praise of God, and why or why not?
2. In verse 29, why do you think God gave the king a year before his dream came true?
3. In verse 30, the king seems to be so much in love with himself that he can't think of anything else. How can we help ourselves with this human trait?

“Modern research has shown that Nebuchadnezzar was the greatest monarch that Babylon, or perhaps the East generally, ever produced. He must have possessed an enormous command of human labor, nine-tenths of Babylon itself, and nineteen-twentieths of all the other ruins that in almost countless profusion cover the land, are composed of brick stamped with his name. He appears to have built or restored almost every city and temple in the whole country. His inscriptions give an elaborate account of the immense works which he constructed in and about Babylon itself, abundantly illustrating the boast, “Is not this great Babylon which I have built?”

4. In verses 31-33, did the king have a choice or was it God's will for him to “eat grass”?
5. In verses 33-34, what do you believe happened to the king during his 7 year insanity exile?
6. In verse 36, how and why do you think he was restored to his kingdom after the 7 years?
7. In verses 36-37, we might think that the king didn't learn his lesson well, but time would tell. What do we learn?
