The Greeting & Announcements

Welcome to all our visitors! If we haven't greeted you already, please stay where you are after the service and we will come meet you. Also, we love having little ones in our service. Should, though, your little one become a distraction to you or others by crying out, constantly shuffling, or speaking loudly, please take them out to quiet them and then also consider taking advantage of our Mothers' Nursing Room or our Nursery (up to 4 yrs). Thank you!

Westminster Larger Catechism #99 Part 3 of 3

Q: What rules are to be observed for the right understanding of the Ten Commandments?

A: For the right understanding of the Ten Commandments, these rules are to be observed:

6. That under one sin or duty, all of the same kind are forbidden or commanded; together with all the causes, means, occasions, and appearances thereof, and provocations thereunto.

7. That what is forbidden or commanded to ourselves, we are bound, according to our places, to endeavor that it may be avoided or performed by others, according to the duty of their places.

8. That in what is commanded to others, we are bound, according to our places and callings, to be helpful to them, and to take heed of partaking with others in what is forbidden them.
