

Linked with God's Love

Cut these strips out of your paper and write something that reminds you of God's love on each of them. Then roll them into a circle and tape, glue, or staple the ends together. When you have one circle, put the next paper through it before taping that one. You can make a chain of reminders about God's love!

God loves me because...

God loves me because...

God loves me because...

God loves me because...

God loves me because...

God loves me because...

God loves me because...
