

Religious Education Coordinator

Reports to: Minister

Hours: 10-12 hours/week Including Sundays 9:30-12:30

10-month contract (8/15-6/15)

Salary $13,000

Start Date August 25, 2025

First Parish in Scituate is looking for a Children's Religious Education Coordinator. This person will lead a volunteer group to provide an exploration of world religions, conservation, volunteerism and other curriculum provided by the UUA. The goal is to build our Religious Education program with the use of both indoor and outdoor classroom settings and creative energy.

The responsibilities will include organizing and leading Sunday morning activities with Children ranging in age from 5-15 with the help of Parent Volunteers and setting up Sunday morning childcare with High School Volunteers. Specific duties include:

- Leading Sunday Morning RE Activities
- Following the 2025/2026 Church Calendar RE Curriculum as specified by the Minister and RE Committee
- Organizing and managing an RE Volunteer schedule
- Organizing and doing an inventory of the RE Area
- Communicating with RE Families and gathering permissions for participation
- Submitting weekly RE news updates for the Church Newsletter
- Establishing a daycare program for Sunday Mornings with the help of the RE Committee

If you are passionate about working with children and youth in support of progressive faith and diverse world views, we invite you to apply!

Support will be provided by both the Minister and Church Members.

People of any faith (or no faith) are welcome for this position, some teaching experience and good organizational and communication skills are preferred. First Parish Church is an equal opportunity employer.
