This month we are scheduled to finish our journey through the Gospel of John. And what a journey it has been. With a few breaks along the way, we've been on this journey since the 2023 Advent Season. The journey climaxed on a bloody cross and at an empty tomb. Hallelujah!

The end of John's Gospel is instructive, convicting, and comforting. It includes an appearance of Jesus to His disciples, particularly to Thomas who was struggling with his faith. Then, Jesus appears to seven of His disciples and cooks them breakfast. Finally, and remarkably, Jesus takes Peter, the disciple who had denied Him three times, and restores him in friendship and ministry.

Amid these closing scenes to John's Gospel account, John reveals to us the reason for the narrative.

"Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name." (John 20:30-31)

I pray that your faith has been strengthened through this study. I pray that the lost who have been listening in will come to believe in Jesus. He is the Christ, the Son of God, the only way to eternal life.

For the gospel,
Brent

Operation Christmas Child

Christmas in July is over, but we are still taking donations for OCC. August 2nd- 3rd is tax free weekend in Arkansas and a great time to save money on shoebox items. Feel free to reach out if you have any questions.

Also, the church's OCC store will have tables set up in the Children's area on August 10th, 17th, & 24th to pick up boxes, drop off some of your purchases for OCC boxes, or pick up tote bags, jump ropes, and other items we already have in our OCC store to put into your own shoeboxes you are packing. Come check it out!
