Eyes on Heaven

CONNECT GROUP QUESTIONS | 7.13.25

Have you ever had a season where you felt really hungry and thirsty for God? What was it like?

How does it feel to know that feeling an absence of God and that making you uncomfortable is a sign that the Holy Spirit lives inside you?

Look back over the past year, do you have a greater hunger and thirst for God now than you did a year ago?

What will you do in the coming weeks and months to increase your hunger for God? What bold steps of faith is God asking you to take?

Tell us about a time you chose to let God's will be done, not your own.

What does true satisfaction feel like here on earth?

Who is someone you know who lives with their eyes on heaven?
