EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Holy Eucharist

10a

The Fourth Sunday of Easter

Sunday, April 21, 2024

It is the tradition of the Episcopal Church to maintain silence in the worship area so that people may pray. Please help us preserve an atmosphere of quiet reverence before worship. Remember to turn off or silence all phones. Thank you.

Collect of the Day

Presider The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Let us pray.

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calls us each by name, and follow where he leads; who, with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading

Acts 4:5-12

The People are seated

The rulers, elders, and scribes assembled in Jerusalem, with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family. When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, "By what power or by what name did you do this?" Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead. This Jesus is 'the stone that was rejected by you, the builders;

it has become the cornerstone.'

There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved."

Lector The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Psalm

23

- O God, you are my shepherd; *
I shall not be in want.
- You make me lie down in green pastures *
and lead me beside still waters.
- You revive my soul *
and guide me along right pathways for the sake of your Name.
- Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I shall fear no evil, *
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
- You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; *
you have anointed my head with oil,
and my cup is running over.
- Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life, *
and I will dwell in the house of God for ever.

The Saint Helena Psalter Translation

Second Reading

1 John 3:16-24

We know love by this, that he laid down his life for us-- and we ought to lay down our lives for one another. How does God's love abide in anyone who has the world's goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help?

Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action. And by this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness before God; and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him.

And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. All who obey his commandments abide in him, and he abides in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit that he has given us.

John 10:11-18

Remain standing

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father."

Priest The Gospel of our Savior.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

The Rev. Kelly Kirby

Apostles' Creed

BCP p. 96

The People stand as able

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Peace

All stand as able.

Presider The peace of Christ be always with you.
People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and the People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Eucharistic Prayer D

The People remain standing.

Presider The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them up to the Lord.
Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Presider continues the Eucharistic prayer

It is truly right to glorify you, Holy One, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever. Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance.

Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we sing,

Presider and People

Sanctus

S-129

Proulx

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The People stand or kneel as the prayer continues

We acclaim you, holy God, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Holy God, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, Jesus lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose Jesus gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for Christ who died and rose for us, you sent the Holy Spirit, your own first gift for those who believe, to complete your work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Presider is to hold it, or lay a hand upon it, and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

When the hour had come for Jesus to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Almighty God, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming Christ's resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting Christ's coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

Presider and People

We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord our God.

The Presider continues the prayer

God our Creator, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

[Remember (NN. and) all who minister in your Church.]

[Remember all your people, and those who seek your truth.]

[Remember .]

[Remember all who have died in the peace of Christ, and those whose faith is known to you alone; bring them into the place of eternal joy and light.]

And grant that we may find our inheritance with (with Matthew) and] all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through Jesus Christ our Savior.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. AMEN.

The Presider then continues

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving. Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Clingman Forum: The Rev. Jerry Cappel on Creation Care, What is the heart of creation care ministry? Community organizing? Deepening spirituality? Renewed hospitality and healing? What does the world need from the church (and what do we need)? If the church is a place of spiritual gifts, what gifts can it offer for the healing of creation? If creation is a blessing and gift to the church, what blessings and grace does it offer in this day of suffering and loss?

What the world needs most is for the church to be the church, proclaiming the presence of God and the mission of redemption for all creation. What creation's creatures need are faithful communities modeling the Kingdom of God as a witness for all.

This Sunday, April 21, in a workshop titled Tending the Heart of Creation Care (And Sustaining Our Souls), The Rev. Jerry Cappel will lead a conversation exploring these questions and their implications for an effective and sustaining ministry of creation care in the church. During this workshop on the eve of Earth Day, we will consider the roles of imagination, theology, gospel, priesthood, worship, prayer, and the work of repair with God for all creation.

Clingman Forum meets Sundays during the program year in Clingman Chapel, immediately following the 10 o'clock Eucharist. The program begins promptly at 11:10a and concludes at noon. We hope you can join us in person, but you are also welcome to check in from home (or wherever you are) via Zoom on your computer or device:

Virtual Adult Education: Acts of the Apostles II. Join us in Virtual Adult Education Monday evening as we continue our inquiry into the Acts of the Apostles, timed to coincide with Sunday's first readings during Eastertide drawing from this literate, well-written book that could be called Part II of the Gospel according to Luke.

Acts, like Luke's Gospel, emphasizes Jesus's preferential option for the poor and the oppressed and God's call for justice, peace, and the dignity of every person. These are concepts with which most of us can resonate.

We'll gather via Zoom on Monday, April 22, from 6-7:15 p.m., as we seek to learn more about this fascinating (if not necessarily fully historical) tale about early Christianity and how it spread.

Amy Tidwell, Susan Brokenshire-Prater, and Robin Garr moderate Virtual Adult Education. If you participate regularly, you are already registered for Monday's session and will receive the email invitation with Zoom information. If you aren't on the list, please contact Robin by email at robingarr@gmail.com to receive your Zoom invitation by email or text.

The first requirement for membership is the ability to enjoy socializing with seniors. We are also a fundraising arm for the Home. Monthly activities, shared with other Louisville Episcopal Church parishes, include helping residents worship in St Luke's Chapel, singalongs, bingo, and working in the Shoppe at Morton House. We attend a meeting the first Monday of each month. To begin the application process or if you have questions, talk to any Woman's Board member or Barbara Uligian, our Woman's Board parish representative. A brochure is available next to the welcome desk.

Food donations are down, but the need is ever-increasing! During the month of April, you can help alleviate hunger in the Louisville area by leaving food donations for St. George's and Calvary Food Pantries in the shopping carts in the narthex. Donations will be collected and delivered quarterly during the months of January, April, July, and October. (A shopping cart will no longer reside outside at the drive-through portico.) All non-perishable staples such as canned (with flip-top lid cans), jarred, and dried foods are requested. Calorically dense foods such as canned meats and peanut butter, and ready-to-eat side dishes are preferred. Donations of paper products, toiletries, and laundry supplies are also always welcomed and will be allocated to low-income senior citizens. Please do not donate clothing.

WORSHIP

Illuminations

The Fourth Sunday after Easter is also called "Good Shepherd Sunday" for its focus on God's protective love. In the first reading from The Acts of the Apostles, we see Peter, brave and bold with the power of the Holy Spirit. He and John have been arrested by the Temple authorities for causing a stir by healing a paralyzed man, then preaching that the resurrected Jesus is the Messiah. Unafraid, Peter tells them that they are the ones who crucified Jesus, whom God then raised from the dead. Quoting the verses from Psalm 118 that we also read recently on Palm Sunday and Easter, Peter declares that Jesus – the stone they had rejected – has become the cornerstone of salvation.
