Sunday A.M. – August 10, 2025
Behold our God
A Holy People Worshiping a Holy God

Worship is one way we respond to God. We express, among other things, thanksgiving to God with a sense of reverence and love. This is how we come to God every day, but there is also some input here as to how we approach God in our worship assemblies.

Jesus' interaction with the Samaritan woman at the well emphasizes that worship is not limited to a set time or place. Romans 12:1-2 tells us that offering our bodies as living sacrifices is our spiritual worship (service). That is a daily endeavor.

In a fast-paced, distracted world, worship can be both a refuge and a challenge. The demands of daily life, the pull of technology, and the noise of today's world can crowd out moments of worship. True worshipers, Jesus says, "worship in spirit and truth."

Beware, there is a temptation to reduce worship to mere routine, devoid of heartfelt engagement. When worship becomes routine, its transformative power goes missing.

Let's not forget that life is lived in such a way as to bring praise and glory to God. (I Corinthians 10:23-33). "Let everything that has breath praise the Lord" (Psalm 150:6).

Worship, then, flows not only from temples and churches, but from the whole of creation—each sunrise, each act of kindness, each whispered prayer—an offering to the One who is, was, and will ever be.

Blessings,

LT

SUNDAY WORSHIP TIMES:

9AM 10AM 5PM

Back to School Days!

WELCOME TO PARKVIEW!

We are SO glad you are with us today!

Are you our guest? We would enjoy meeting you! Please take a moment to fill out an attendance card found next to the hymnals in front of you. You can pass the card to the aisles or drop it in one of the collection boxes on the lobby tables, next to the communion elements.

What to expect: We seek to follow the New Testament example for our assembly. So you may notice that we sing without accompaniment; different men lead us in prayers and a sermon; we take the Lord's Supper, or communion, each Sunday; and members give financially.

If you have questions about what we do or why we do it, please – let us know.
