Sunday A.M. – August 24, 2025
Behold our Sovereign God

No Sovereignty – No God

The sovereignty of God stands as a central pillar in the foundation of Christian theology. This is our acknowledgment that God—by nature, wisdom, and will—has all authority over all creation, including all humanity.

God is the unrivaled ruler over the universe, exercising perfect control and governance over every aspect of everything that exists. Theologians and philosophers throughout the centuries have attempted to wrap this concept into a small package, but at its core, it is a truth that blows those efforts apart and stirs the believing souls to worship Him as Sovereign.

Psalm 103:19, "The Lord has established his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom rules over all."

The Scriptures overflow with declarations of God's unrivaled sovereignty. From Genesis to Revelation, the narrative of the Bible reveals a God who commands the winds and the waves, who raises nations and casts down rulers, who numbers the stars and knows the hairs on every head.

To contemplate the sovereignty of God is to encounter a profound mystery. We may wrestle with questions of suffering, evil, and free will. Why does God allow certain things to happen? How do divine sovereignty and human freedom coexist? These are not questions with simple answers, yet God invites us to trust Him regardless.

The assurance of God's sovereignty is ultimately found in the person of Jesus Christ. The cross, once a symbol of defeat, becomes the throne of victorious love. Resurrection shatters the finality of death, displaying sovereignty not merely as power but as redemptive grace.

To behold our sovereign God is to recognize that we are part of a story far greater than ourselves. We humbly submit to the One who is sovereign. The sovereignty of God is not a doctrine of despair, but a fresh spring of hope. It assures us that history has a direction, that justice will be done, and that the God who is love will have the final word.

Blessings,

LT

WELCOME TO PARKVIEW!

We are SO glad you are with us today!

Are you our guest? We would enjoy meeting you! Please take a moment to fill out an attendance card found next to the hymnals in front of you. You can pass the card to the aisles or drop it in one of the collection boxes on the lobby tables, next to the communion elements.

What to expect: We seek to follow the New Testament example for our assembly. So you may notice that we sing without accompaniment; different men lead us in prayers and a sermon; we take the Lord's Supper, or communion, each Sunday; and members give financially.

If you have questions about what we do or why we do it, please – let us know.
