Breaking Up
with Sin

Bro. Victor Howard I

“ Have I Changed My Relationship with Sin?”

Sin is a p _____ act because it stems from an individual’s free choice, involving their own thoughts, words, actions, or inactions. Mark 7:21-23; Matt. 15:18-19

Romans 6:3-4 signifies, that through faith, we are united with Christ’s death, meaning my old sinful self is c _____ ,....

...the baptism (which is going under the water) symbolizes the d _____ and b _____ of that sinful self...

allows for a “r _____ ” of you (the rising from that watery grave) into a new, holy life...

You do not bury those who “live in sin,” but those who have “d _____ to sin.”

How to change your relationship with SIN:

1. R _____ the relationship
2. Radical r _____
3. C _____ off the relationship
4. R _____ the temptation

Mankind once had a h _____ relationship with God according to Gen. 1 & 2

In that relationship, man, r _____ and b _____ that relationship. Isa. 59:2

Sin s _____ our connection with God which resulted in spiritual death. Gen. 3:8-10

God initiated the r _____ plan. 2 Cor. 5:18-19; Rom. 5:8

Sin is personal c _____, personal t _____, and personal a _____ (or inactions) that replaces God and His righteousness.

Have you changed relationship with sin and nailed it to the cross?

WELCOME TO PARKVIEW!

We are SO glad you are with us today!

Are you our guest? We would enjoy meeting you! Please take a moment to fill out an attendance card found next to the hymnals in front of you. You can pass the card to the aisles or drop it in one of the collection boxes on the lobby tables, next to the communion elements.

What to expect: We seek to follow the New Testament example for our assembly. So you may notice that we sing without accompaniment; different men lead us in prayers and a sermon; we take the Lord’s Supper, or communion, each Sunday; and members give financially.

If you have questions about what we do or why we do it, please – let us know.
