

The Lampighter

December is a very special month for all of us as we celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ. We have family gatherings and close out the year reflecting on the past while planning for a New Year. Often times the Holiday Season can be difficult for those who have lost family member or friends, have distant families or even life's struggles. The good news is that the Lord knows each concern, loves us and provides His wisdom to live by in His Word. As we look forward to 2026 a new challenge, a new commitment for all of us is to learn more about God's Word, apply that knowledge to our daily lives and then share it with others.

The division of the 66 Books of the Bible is broken down by category to provide us with a useful numeric memory tool to learn each section. Memorizing this can be fun and very helpful understanding of the Biblical structure. Cont. p.3

Build a Shoebox

What is the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering?

In 1873, Lottie Moon was appointed as a missionary to China. She spent nearly 40 years sharing the gospel with love, courage, and unwavering faith.

Her letters home inspired churches to pray and give, leading to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for International Missions. Today, this offering supports missionaries and helps take the life-transforming message of Jesus to the nations.

Let's honor her legacy by praying and giving so others can hear the hope of the gospel.

Our church goal is $12,500. Please donate, if you are able, using designated offering envelopes.

Wanda Sellers has updated the Nativity village for Christmas. Please stop by and take a look at all the changes!

Edify is rehearsing after the 11:00 service each Sunday.

Please vacate the sanctuary to facilitate the rehearsal. You are welcome to stay and fellowship in the foyer as long as you like.

Help us make music for Christmas! We would love more people for our choir & orchestra.

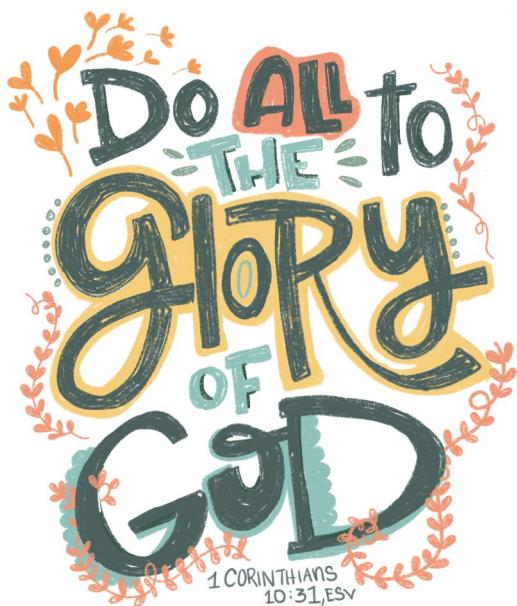

Whoooo's Ready to serve?

The early service (8:30am) needs a new song leader! Contact Pastor Gary if you can serve the Lord & your church in this way.

A closing thought for each of us.

A great lesson from someone who went back to the basics was legendary football coach, Vince Lombardi. It was said that once he took the head coach position of the Green Bay Packers he called the team together, knelt down picked up a football and simply said, "Let's start from the beginning, this is a football." The team became very successful and is a good reminder of how getting back to the basics is important. Understanding the basics of the Bible are very important to obtain wisdom as we mature in our faith.

So let's take this challenge using a simple memory tool - OT 5, 12, 5, 5, 12 and the NT 4, 1, 21, 1, memorize it, have fun and share with others, as we learn more about God's Word.

Philippians 4:9 what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you.

Merry Christmas and May the Lord bless each of you during this special time of Year... Now go and share the Lord with as many people as possible.

Operation Christmas Child

The Power of a Simple Gift

Monthly Ideas: December: PRAYER

Livia and the Hairclips

Livia received her shoebox in a Romanian orphanage when she was 12.

All my life I really wanted hairclips but growing up in an orphanage where we had very little I could never get them. But I really, really wanted hairclips.

Then Operation Christmas Child came and there it was—a big packet of hairclips sitting at the very top of my shoebox! I couldn't believe my eyes. I thought, How can someone give me something that I've wanted for so many years? Someone far away decided to pack it up, never knowing that it would be somebody's dream come true.

I took the packet out. I tore it open and tried to put every single one of them in my hair. And I did!

There was a woman named Connie who was with me, an American missionary who was helping pass out the shoeboxes. She was trying to tell me to slow down. I said, "No, no. I want all my hairclips in."

"Just put one to the right and one to the left, and you'll look much better," she said.

"No, I want all the hairclips in," I insisted. So I put them all in and had them on the whole day.

I really wanted something to keep my hair off my face. I wanted to feel the wind touch my neck. When I got those hairclips I was so excited to finally be free of all the stuff that covers your face or neck or ears. Receiving those hairclips meant a lot.

"As they went on about the Gospel, I was mesmerized by the words of love."

Before we even got the shoebox gifts they shared the Gospel with us. That was something brand new to me. When I got the hairclips I just couldn't believe how God could make something like that possible. It made me realize that there is a God who loves me. He loves me because he wanted me to have the hairclips.

As they went on about the Gospel, I was mesmerized by the words of love. How could anyone possibly love me? After 10 years of living in the orphanage, all of a sudden people were telling me that I'm loved.

I thought, There's no way. How am I supposed to take this? I was really shocked to hear the news of not only God loving us but also people from all over the world. Love was a brand new word in my vocabulary.

The same year I received the shoebox I accepted Christ into my heart. The shoebox is almost nothing compared to knowing Jesus. There was so much joy. I wished I could tell everybody in the world that I accepted Christ.

It's a different feeling because the things in the shoebox gift get lost or broken or used up, but our Savior never does. He's always there for us. That's what I love about it.

To have a God who loves us unconditionally every day to make up for the years of my life living in an orphanage, that's the greatest gift of all right there.
