ENGAGE – THE WORD

Read: Romans 12:2

QUESTION 1: What does Romans 12:2 mean by 'do not conform to the pattern of this world,' and how did Jesus embody this principle in His life?

Answer: Human nature often prioritizes safety over potential due to fears of failure and standing out. This can lead to conformity and suppressing individuality. Jesus, however, showed a different way by embracing uniqueness and demonstrating God's power.

Get two people to read: 2 Timothy 3:5 and Acts 2:1-4

QUESTION 2: What empowers believers to break free from conformity and stand out?

Answer: Embracing Your Kingdom Identity: You're called to stand out, not blend in. Your strength comes from God, not the crowd. The power of the Holy Spirit is what breaks the mould, empowering you to lead, influence, and transform not just survive. It's the supernatural power of God that sets you apart and makes you STAND OUT.

Get two people to read: Matthew 5:14-16 and 2 Timothy 1:7

QUESTION 3: How are believers called to shine in the world, and what fuels their boldness?

HOMECALL NOTES

Answer: You're not just a faint glow – you're the light of the world, called to shine bright, challenge darkness, and stand out. The Holy Spirit empowers you to shift the world, not fit in with it. Fear may whisper doubts and insecurities, but you inherit power, not fear. You stand tall in the fire, unburned, empowered by the Holy Ghost.

Get two people to read: Esther 4:14 and Isaiah 60:1

QUESTION 4: How are believers meant to live out their faith and influence the world around them?

Answer: You weren't born to blend in you were born to stand out and shine. Your influence, talents, and favour are strategic assets for Kingdom impact. Don't hide your light; let it change your family, workplace, and city. Your success is not selfish it's purposeful. Rise up, lead courageously, and speak fearlessly. The Holy Ghost commissions you to build boldly and influence boldly.

YOU ARE BORN TO STAND OUT... AND ANOINTED TO INFLUENCE.
