

21 Days of Prayer

Week 1 Recap

"There is a divine opportunity for intimacy with God if we just take a step to lean in. When prayer becomes our habit, miracles become our lifestyle". Hamp Greene

Day 1 Sunday with Max Lucado Be Anxious for Nothing

Lucado guided us to C.A.L.M. through Philippians 4:4-9: Celebrate our God with praise and thanksgiving, Ask God through prayer, Leave our concerns with Him in trust, and Meditate on true and good things. The result is peace.

Philippians 4:4-9

Day 2 Monday Jesus is Lord

The definition of Lord is one possessed of absolute control, master. We were asked to pray with more listening than asking. As Jesus died by crucifixion for us, we prayed to die to ourselves (how we see, hear, think, understand, act), our flesh (appetites, pride, greed, lusts), and the world (idols, sports, TV/News, culture), while recognizing Jesus as our Lord.

Philippians 2:6-11

Day 3 Tuesday Jesus is our Peace

The world tells us how to achieve peace for ourselves, but the Bible says Jesus is our peace. We prayed to push away the world and declare peace with God, peace within ourselves, and peace in our circumstances.

Isaiah 9:6
Ephesians 2:14
Romans 5:1-2
Philippians 4:6-7
John 16:33

Day 4 Wednesday Jesus is our Provider

Not Santa or Genie, Jesus is the true source and provider of all we need: our life, soul, and situation. We prayed for specific, focused, and confident requests, proclaiming our trust in him as our provider. God is not in short supply; pray big.

Philippians 4:19

Day 5 Thursday The Lord is our Shepherd

Without a shepherd, sheep willfully eat poisonous food and follow the flock off the cliff to their death. Sheep do have one superpower, hearing. They know their master's voice and obey it alone. The Bible says we are His sheep and God is our Shepherd. We prayed to follow no other voice. "Speak God and I will listen. Lead and I will follow. Command and I will obey."

Psalms 23

Day 6 Friday Jesus is our Healer

We were reminded to seek the healer more than the healing. We prayed to espouse right standing with God (to receive, adopt, and agree that we are forgiven, restored, and redeemed with access to all benefits of the cross) and to embrace our journey of faith (to trust even when we don't understand). "To live is Christ and to die is gain". Followers of Christ cannot lose. Eternal life is eternal healing.
