

Renewed Covenant: Walk Before Me - Genesis 17:1-27

1. What does it practically look like to “walk before God and be blameless” today? How does grace make that possible?
2. How has your identity changed since following Jesus? Where do you still struggle to embrace your new identity in Christ?
3. Are you currently trusting in God’s promises or trying to substitute your own version of fulfillment like Abraham did with Ishmael?
4. Who in your life is part of your spiritual legacy? What are you actively doing to build that legacy?
5. Are there signs of God’s inward work—like the fruit of the Spirit—evident to others in your life? Where do you see growth? Where do you see resistance?
6. God asked Abraham to obey immediately. What has God asked you to do that you’ve been delaying?
7. In what area of your life do you need to stop striving and start trusting that “He who calls you is faithful”?
