

Truth For The World®

Will you join
Truth For The World in Teaching All Nations™?

In today's world we may sometimes get the impression that nobody cares about learning the truth of God's word. But, if you work with Truth For The World you will get the opposite impression. People come to us constantly to read our written content, listen to our radio station and programs, watch our TV channel and programs, sign up for Bible Correspondence Courses and access courses on our online Bible College.

In reality, the success of Christian evangelism is not determined by how many obey the Gospel. That choice is left to the individual and is out of our control. Our mission is to sow and water as much as we can and let God give the increase (1 Corinthians 3:6). Using modern technology and old-fashioned manpower, we are working on our mission of "Teaching All Nations™."

Read on to see what we are doing, how you can be a part of it, and how you can use us for your own evangelism efforts!

"I want to thank my beloved teacher...
You are my inspiration,"
- Mtatikas, Zimbabwe
