Leviticus 17-20, pt. 2: Sexual Holiness

One of the areas where the holiness God requires of his people is especially to be expressed is with respect to sexual intimacy—a topic that seems to have been just as controversial then as it is now.

I. LEVITICUS 18 & 20: WHAT IS FORBIDDEN, AND WHY?

II. IS THIS STILL RELEVANT FOR US?: OBJECTIONS & ANSWERS

III. WHAT HOPE IS THERE FOR SEXUAL SINNERS?

UPCOMING SERMONS

Twice a week, Mission NOVA, a gospel-centric outreach ministry, provides our south Arlington neighbors with healthy meals and fresh clothes to support and sustain families. On Friday, August 29, Cornerstone has an opportunity to help with meal bag assembly and distribution. Located at 5401 7th Rd S, Arlington, the Outreach Committee is looking for 4-6 volunteers to unload heavy food boxes (9:00am - 10:30am) and another 4-6 (10:15am-12:30pm) to assemble and distribute food bags at Mission NOVA. If you can pitch in and have a preferred shift, please contact outreach@cornerstonefree.org.

AUGUST 24 FAREWELL GATHERING FOR MARJORIE COOK

Sunday, August 24th 2025

The sad rumors are true, in a few short weeks, Marjorie Cook will be relocating to Texas to a missionary retirement community. Following church service on August 24, please plan to join a farewell gathering in the church library to honor lifelong missionary Marjorie Cook and celebrate her extraordinary contributions to biblical literacy not only for Cornerstone, but for children and families around the world. First serving as a missionary to the Philippines through SIL Global for 33 years and then continuing her translation and literacy work stateside. Marjorie has been a blessing to the Cornerstone family, particularly in organizing and outfitting our library. Please plan to check out a good book and join us to honor her work and wish her well. Cards and notes welcome!
