First Presbyterian Church | Volume XXX, Issue 2 Jan 11, 2026 - Jan 18, 2026

Dear Church,

Today, I want to share with you one of my favorite poems. It is written by the great theologian and civil rights leader, Howard Thurman.

The Work of Christmas

When the song of the angels is stilled,
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and princes are home,
When the shepherds are back with their flock,
The work of Christmas begins:
To find the lost,
To heal the broken,
To feed the hungry,
To release the prisoner,
To rebuild the nations,
To bring peace among brothers,
To make music in the heart.

May it be so, beloved Church. Amen.

Tara

LAY READERS WANTED

A diversity of voices in worship is a beautiful thing!

Would you like to be more involved in Sunday worship service? Sign up to be a lay reader and contribute in a deeply meaningful way as a voice of the congregation. What will you do? As a lay reader you will be reading the opening scripture in your choice of either 8:30 am or 11:00 am service. Scared of those crazy Bible names? Don't be! You've got this and we've got you! Contact Melani Willhite at 919-821-5750 to sign up.

MARTHA MINISTRY

There they made him (Jesus) a supper; and Martha served...John 12:2

Laurie let the congregation know that our friend David Slook broke his hip on December 17 and has been in the hospital and is now in rehab at Hillcrest Raleigh at Crabtree Care Center. We send David our prayers for his speedy recovery and send Kathy all our best thoughts and love.

A reminder that the Service of Witness to the Resurrection for Roger Punt will be held in the Vanguard Room on Sunday, January 11th, at 2:00pm.

Feeding Our Flock Update

It's so exciting to see the amount of deliciously prepared food items in our freezer just waiting to be taken to any of our flock who would enjoy a lovingly prepared meal. THANKS TO ALL OUR GREAT CHEFS!
