

[illegible]

joy! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel. It came upon the midnight clear, that glorious song of old, from angels bending near the earth to touch their harps of gold Peace
 on the earth, good will to men from heaven's all-gracious King. The world in solemn stillness lay, to hear the angels sing. Still through the cloven

Week 2 Devotional

The Prince Of Peace

Micah 5:1–5

Micah prophesied that from Bethlehem would come the One who would “be their peace.” Peace is more than the absence of conflict—it’s the deep wholeness that comes from being made right with God. Through Jesus, that peace is offered to all who trust Him. This Christmas, in the midst of a noisy world, God invites us to rest in His stillness.

When Christ rules our hearts, His peace overcomes our fears, guards our minds, and fills our homes with calm assurance.

1

Reflection Question

What would it look like for you to let Christ’s peace rule in your heart this week?

2

Prayer:

Prince of Peace, still our restless hearts. Teach us to trust You in uncertainty and to be peacemakers in our relationships. Let Your peace dwell richly in our lives and overflow to others. Amen.

Family Activity

Have a “Peace Night.” Turn off devices, light a candle, read Micah 5:1–5 together, and sit quietly for two minutes. Talk about what brings each person peace and pray together for peace in your family and community.

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.